10. ENROLMENT FORM

The registration form should be filled in and signed by the exhibitor and then submitted to the Furniture Fair, and constitutes a definite commitment by the exhibitor. In the event of cancellation by the exhibitor, all payments (file costs, stand fee and, possibly interest) remain due to the Furniture Fair, even when the stand has been rented to another exhibitor. As participation is on a non-transferable basis, no renounce or transfer - not even partially - is permissible.

11. ALLOCATION OF STANDS

The location and shape of the stand space is indicated by the Furniture Fair. Concerning the stand allocation, the Furniture Fair may organize the stands by certain criteria. A copy of the policies will be forwarded to the exhibitor at his request. The exemptions and exclusions of these policies will be charged to the exhibitor. Each participant agrees to pay his share in the all risk exhibition policy. The Furniture Fair declines all responsibility for loss, damage or other harm done to objects and goods on display, of whatever nature and for whatever reason. Personal items are excluded.

Waste, carpet and other materials used in the stand construction must be removed by the exhibitor at the end of the Fair. The adhesive tape used to fix the carpet must also be carefully removed. The costs of removing materials, adhesive tape and paint stains, in other words the clearing up of the buildings and repair of any damage caused by exhibitors, their employees or their stand constructors shall be invoiced to any exhibitor who fails to respect these regulations.

23. DIFFERENCES

The exhibitors renounce their right to pursue a claim against the Furniture Fair for whatever reason or whatever damage. The exhibitors have no claim to damages incurred by postponement or cancellation of the Fair due to unforeseen circumstances or force majeure.
